

Regimental Orders

REGIMENTAL ORDERS.
The following is the law for regulating the elections for Militia officers:
At all Military stations, the officers above the rank of Captain, thirty days notice thereof in writing, shall be given to the officer on person charged with the execution of the order thereof, to one of the inspectors of each election district in the county, where such election is to be held.

By order of Major General Hugh W. Daniel, of the 3d Division, Mississippi Militia,
WILLIAM F. JONES,
Colonel of the 25th Regiment.

The following is the law for regulating the elections for Militia officers:
At all Military stations, the officers above the rank of Captain, thirty days notice thereof in writing, shall be given to the officer on person charged with the execution of the order thereof, to one of the inspectors of each election district in the county, where such election is to be held.

The inspector receiving such notice, shall, without delay, give notice thereof in writing to the other inspectors of this district; and cause copies of the same, to be posted at three of the most public places of his district.

The inspector so notified, shall hold and conduct such election, in all respects, agreeable to the law regulating the election of civil officers, and shall make a speedy return thereof, to the officer, or person charged with the execution of the order, requiring such election to be held.

All of the enrolled Militia, both officers and Soldiers, and all free white male citizens entitled to vote for members of the Legislature, are by law entitled to vote, for all officers in the Militia in their respective commands.

PROSPECTUS OF THE MANCHESTER GAZETTE.
A FEW words will explain our course. Established to advance the claims of no particular candidate for any office, the Gazette will strive to inculcate and sustain the principles of the old Republican party, so far as those principles are consonant with the political faith embodied in the Virginia and Kentucky Resolutions of '98 and '99. We regard these resolutions as covering the whole ground of State Rights and State Remedies, and as the fountain from whence has flowed the doctrine of "free trade and no restriction;" or in other words, a doctrine by a strict adherence to which the South can alone preserve her domestic institutions free from the bold assaults of infuriated fanatics, and maintain her political equality of "benefits and burdens" in the scale of Union.

In matters relating to the prosperity of the State, the advancement of the local interests of Yazoo county, and the town of Manchester, we pledge fealty to use our best endeavors to promote the welfare of each and all. Commerce and Agriculture, cardinal interests, will receive their due share of attention. And to be brief, the Gazette will be a paper well stored with the "passing tidings of the times." It will be found to contain a little of every thing that is useful or entertaining to the general reader. We make no further promises, but will do our best—the best can do more.

S. R. ADAMS.
Manchester, August, 1838.

TERMS.
The Gazette will be published every Thursday morning on a large Imperial sheet, and furnished to subscribers at $5 per annum in advance, or $6 at the end of the year. Advertisements inserted at the usual rates.

STEAM COTTON PRESS.
THE Subscriber takes this method of informing the public that the STEAM COTTON PRESS in the City of Vicksburg, will be in full operation on the first day of October—He is now prepared to receive and safely store thirty thousand bales of Cotton; seven hundred bales can be compressed per day; and he will ship and forward to any point desired by the owner.

WM. H. WASHINGTON.
The Manchester Whig, Canton Herald, Lexington Standard, and Grand Bulletin, will publish the above, and forward their respective accounts to this office for payment.—Brandon Republican.
